

Worlds Apart

Demon Hunter

I feel the weight of war run down my spine
From giving way to the vain in a vacant mind
My time
Here in the wake I know when the noose was set
But the truth of it all is that I regret
What I have left

Now let me catch my breath
The silence, it should sound like death
The ties between us fade
My sympathy's in retrograde

I feel it disconnecting
Like building walls around my heart
To pull our worlds apart
I need this separation
Just like I wanted from the start
To pull our worlds apart

When all the voices sound then it's all just dead
We suffer the fate of a tone that is all in red
Instead
Where is the line to divide from the truth and lie
If the two ring alike when it's all been said?
Where is my debt?

Now let me catch my breath
The silence, it should sound like death
Let me catch my breath
The silence, it should sound like death
The ties between us fade
My sympathy's in retrograde

Tell me
Is there something that I need to know
Or is it all noise burning out of control?

Now let me catch my breath
The silence, it should sound like death
Let me catch my breath
The silence, it should sound like death
The ties between us fade
My sympathy's in retrograde

I feel it disconnecting
Like building walls around my heart
To pull our worlds apart
I need this separation
Just like I wanted from the start
To pull our worlds apart

I feel it disconnecting
Like building walls around my heart
I need this separation
