

Fallen Mountain

Demonical

Serpent tongue was spewing venomous speech
Chaos breed into darkness reach
Eyemaster, the demon spawned
Carnage incarnate, masses standing awed
The master of death, commanding heresy
Infernal demonic clarity
Calling upon aeons stranger
The chief dominating rebel angel
Ventured into the shadow realms
Burning countless imperial deaths
From the dark depths a demon's end
Roaring from the gallows' end
Like the great morningstar
Charging head first into war
Standing at the black cross
We hail the fallen mountain
Abomination of the greatest kind
The patient wolf entombed one
Bowing before hellraiser
Necromantic god of thunder
The one who spawned into the depths of fire
Wielder of the black f*cking breath

Always walked the left hand path
Longing for the aftermath
Lucifer spoke and loudly called
Out from hell and flames it crawled
Like the great morningstar
Charging head first into war
Standing at the black cross
We hail the fallen mountain
Abomination of the greatest kind
The patient wolf entombed one
Bowing before hellraiser
Necromantic god of thunder
The one who spawned into the depths of fire
Wielder of the black breath
Standing at the black cross
We hail the fallen mountain
Abomination of the greatest kind
The patient wolf entombed one
Bowing before hellraiser
Necromantic god of thunder
The one who spawned into the depths of fire
Wielder of the black f*cking breath
