

Unfold Thy Darkness

Demonical

Smothered by the dust of the damned
As the corpses grind into powder
The time to hurdle those starving souls is now
Empty soulless shells is what remain

The darkness has arrived
Shimmer - fog of empty souls

Unfold thy darkness over man
Receive, consume, digest
Tell them the tale of the accuser
Receive, consume, digest

Seamless spirits linger still
Countless phantoms and their crying chant
Voices of 1000 burning children dying
A masterpiece authored by the undead

Into oblivion - beg for your death

Unfold thy darkness over man
Receive, consume, digest
Tell them the tale of the accuser
Receive, consume, digest

Blessed be the fruit and spirit of the dead
Fuel the future with dust of the past

Smothered by the dust of the damned
As the corpses grind into powder
The time to hurdle those starving souls is now
Empty soulless shells is what remain

Consume my soul
Prime of the end
Wake up dead

Unfold thy darkness over man
Receive, consume, digest
Tell them the tale of the accuser
Receive, consume, digest
