The Strongest One

DemonLord

With courage but the deepest fear Embittered but strong like steel He sailed to Troy across the ocean

Tested by the Gods of pleasure Left his home and son forever and more For this killing war

Blood and Scream - Pain and Fear I served You - so You hurt me?!? Compulsion of distress But I won for your greatness Now I'm cursed by by the God of ocean I left my home and I can't be back anymore not anymore

I reach my land Not even Gods can thrust me back I will return You pressed me to sail on water Until my life meets the end I refuse you Gods I will reach my land - the holy land

Seven bloody years in the cruelest war 'nother ten years on the ocean "Lost my soldiers, lost belief but In my dreams I always saw the day I come and hold my wife in my arms On my holy land"

No Danger - No Monsters Can stop me on my journey I'm the Strongest - The Cruelest If I have to make it happen Fight with Gods and holy powers You can kill me, but never can play with my life -'til I have a life
