

New Dawn

Demons & Wizards

Nothing will last
Everything Fades
When all the worlds collide
Then there is no future
There's no past

Along with the dawn
It will be gone
All will cease
When the damage is done
It's paradise lost
Thy kingdom will come
Damage done
Thy kingdom will come

I saw the beast
Innocent child
Your mask I behold
It can fool me no more

It's a sinister sound
You're the true source of heresy

Your damage is done
True bliss you have blown away
Lord I will heal it all
With your fire
Lord I redeem them
Lord I redeem
These fools into the light
Drown in the light
Inflame the horizon
I'll cleanse it with fire

Caught up in a war
It will follow you everywhere
Tear it all apart

Disbelief, they praise a false god

So obscene, this world
We are all going down
Going down
I've come here on my own
On my own

They agreed
No other conclusion
Watch out
Your end is near

It shall never be
Oh, I may weep in pride
When I kill in silence
Like an angel knight

Your damage is done

True bliss you have blown away
Let me restore the great divine
Lord I redeem them
Lord I redeem these fools

Into the light
Drown in light
Inflame the horizon
I'll cleanse it with fire
I'll cleanse it with fire

Into the light
Drown in light
Inflame the horizon
I'll cleanse it with fire
I'll cleanse it with fire
