

Split

Demons & Wizards

Oh, what a strange revelation
We're one, we're all the same
What a big sensation
This is the safest solution
I'll let them drown

So we ride on
On this ghost train
Yes, we're all fooled the same
Caught in isolation
Keep rolling on, no destination
We can't get out

Great is the triumph of evil
Salvation
Superior
Ingenious
Salvation
He's lethal
Great is their number
They're legion
Salvation
Great it the triumph of evil

Now Split - resist
Why don't you listen to me?
Locked up
You'll be safe forever
Locked up
You'll be safe forever
You're insane
You better listen to me
Be aware that you don't matter
I'm aware that you don't matter

Split exist
We resist
Or else we're going blind
In this eternal asylum
We all are going blind
Going blind

These lunatics long for salvation
Still they're too blind to see

They failed the last temptation
This path will lead into damnation
There's no return

Great is the triumph of evil
Salvation
Superior
Ingenious
Salvation
He's lethal
They're legion

Salvation

Now Split resist
Why don't you listen to me?
Locked up
You'll be safe forever
Locked up
You'll be safe forever
You're insane
You better listen to me
Be aware that you don't matter
I'm aware that you don't matter

Split exist
We resist
In this eternal asylum
We all are going blind
But it is not the flood I fear
It's the coming of the storm
I am going blind
In this eternal asylum
We're hiding to survive
Split exist
We resist
Or else
We're going blind
Going blind
