

When Fathers Sing

dEMOTIONAL

Breathe in, breathe out, trying to save the moment
A million thoughts buzz in my head (Breathe slowly)
I understand why it's so hard to stay focused
The world passes by in front of me
Cuz there's only one thing I can see

All that I love is right in front of me
Precious, temporarily as can
Be here and capture every little thing
When you look into my eyes you make your father sing

Wish I could find a way to freeze time (Slow down)
Try to rewind inside my mind, I will always be around

I'm here with you through every heartbeat
Watching over you, I'd die for you, you make me complete
Guide you, I know this life can be so strange
Come with me, I'll show the way
Though I'm scared of accepting change

All that I love is right in front of me
Precious, temporarily as can
Be here and capture every little thing
When you look into my eyes you make your father sing

Fathers sing

All that I love is right in front of me
Precious, temporarily as can
Be here and capture every little thing
When you look into my eyes you make your father sing

All that I love is right in front of me
Precious, temporarily as can
Be here and capture every little thing
When you look into my eyes you make your father sing
