

Love Notes

Deniece Williams

Well, I'm thinking of the feel of me and you
And I'm dreaming of those love-spent afternoons
I close my eyes and taste your kisses sweet
Wanna tell the world, wanna tell the world about you
Oh, darling, you make me feel complete

So I'll write love notes just for you
So I'll sing love notes just for you
So I'll write love notes just for you
Just for you

Well, it's not that I am much too shy to say
I like what you do when you do it, oh, baby
You make me feel that way
I love the song, whoa, of you within my heart
Wanna tell the world, wanna tell the world about you
Oh, darling, what better way to start

So I'll write love notes just for you
So I'll sing love notes just for you
So I'll write love notes just for you, for you, ooh...

I like what you do when you do it, oh, baby, mmm...
Wanna tell the world, wanna tell the world about you
Darling, yeah

So I'll write love notes just for you
So I'll sing love notes just for you
So I'll write love notes just for you
So I'll sing love notes just for you...
