

What Two Can Do

Deniece Williams

Tell me, have you always been this shy
I want to know you, I don't really mean to pry
Could it be that you're searching for Love and tenderness, maybe more
Could it be that I'm what you need
You want love and I'm the missing link

Darling, there's so much that two can do
Baby, I thank my lucky stars for you
Darling, there's no doubt, it's you I choose
There's so much that we can do

(There's so much that two can do)
(There's so much that we can do)

Hold me, don't you keep your love inside
I see the magic hiding there behind your eyes
Anyone can be alone
Everybody needs to belong
There's so much that two can do
We're in love and, baby, that's the proof

Darling, there's so much that two can do
Baby, I thank my lucky stars for you, yes, I do
Darling, there's no doubt, it's you I choose
There's so much that we can do

(There's so much that two can do)
(There's so much that we can do)
(There's so much that two can do)
(There's so much that we can do)

Baby, it's you and me
Ooh, we're such a hot team
(There's so much that two can do)
Come closer
(There's so much that we can do)
(There's so much that two can do)

Darling, there's so much that two can do
Baby, I thank my lucky stars for you
You know I do
Darling, there's no doubt, it's you I choose
Baby, there's so much that we can do
