

DIFFICULT

Denise Julia

Is something up?
Baby, I don't wanna have to say anything
But I just can't with this attitude
Many places and bluffs I planned just for us two Did you have to entertain them? I never asked you

Oh
I feel so cynical
Shit, you so typical
And baby I know
We getting too cyclical
Is loving too difficult?

Difficult, difficult, difficult
Tell me is it difficult, baby?
Difficult, difficult, difficult
Tell me, what can I do about it?

If anything, boy, I wanna get us through
But you let me down
Need to put my mind to this 'cause I get distracted
I'm way too proud
Said I beat your game
Yet I'm out too late
I be counting all the days
You never switched your lanes

Oh
I feel so cynical
Shit you so typical
And baby, I know
We getting too cyclical
Is loving too difficult?

Difficult, difficult, difficult
Tell me is it difficult, baby?
Difficult, difficult, difficult
Tell me, what can I do about it?

Difficult, difficult, difficult
Tell me is it difficult, baby?
Difficult, difficult, difficult
Tell me, what can I do about it?

Can't wrap my head around this
Got me wrapped around your fingertips
Baby, how could I miss
Lovin's been so fucked up how it is

Love has been so fucked up how it is
Why is it so difficult?
So difficult
