

don't matter

Denise Julia

45 minutes since you had your shot
Guess you got a thing for a brand new thot
I knew it ain't enough when I had you cuffed
You've been out playing, breaking my trust

I can take the blame, I know how it's done
But how you lost a gem for that overrun?
Fifty cents pouring, and I'm out of luck
Now you're pulling up in a brand new car

What you gon' do if I were the one
Turning off my phone when I'm out here for fun
Say it's in my head, and I'm getting it wrong
Everything I do, it don't matter no more

(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) It don't matter no more
(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) It don't matter, no
(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) It don't matter no more
(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) Everything I do, it don't matter no more

Whatever I do, it don't matter, baby
Yeah, you look decided
On my round 2's, but your party seems
Like it's just getting started
It's just so unfair that I'm alone here
While you're there with your own affairs
So I can't bear to be playing it fair anymore

Bidi bobbidi boo
I'll forget about you
Or at least I'll try to
Set the clock on times 2
Darara doo
To feelings, I go shoo
Cause no matter what I do
It don't matter no more

(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) It don't matter no more
(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) It don't matter, no
(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) It don't matter no more
(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) Everything I do, it don't matter no more

Yeah, I can't save what's beyond repair
And I just can't forgive and forget
So I'ma do you worse till you beg
For no more

Better not hear it's too much to bear
Better not say what you gon' regret

Better yet, no one could ever compare
To you

But it don't matter no more

What you gon' do if I were the one
(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) It don't matter no more
Turning off my phone when I'm out here for fun
(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) It don't matter, no
Say it's in my head, and I'm getting it wrong
(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter) It don't matter no more
(No, it don't matter)
(Don't matter)
Everything I do, it don't matter no more

No, it don't matter, don't matter no more
No, it don't matter, don't matter no more
No, it don't matter, don't matter no more
No, it don't matter, don't matter no more
