

Anxious

Dennis Lloyd

I got a lot of things to say
So many troubles on my mind now
But we can find another day
'Cause the birds are singing
The bells are ringing
The walls are coming down

Another life, another day
Oh, I don't wanna talk about it
Yeah, we can find another time
'Cause the birds are singing
The bells are ringing
The walls are coming down

I keep feeling anxious, baby
Days and the nights when I just keep feeling nervous
Help me
Why do I feel like I'm fighting on my own?
Fighting on my own

It happens every other day
Since the moment that I wake up
I wanna pack and run away
'Cause the birds are singing
The bells are ringing
The walls are coming down

Another life, another day
Oh, I don't wanna talk about it
Yeah, we can find another time
'Cause the birds are singing
The bells are ringing
The walls are coming down

I keep feeling anxious, baby
Days and the nights when I just keep feeling nervous
Help me
Why do I feel like I'm fighting on my own?
Fighting on my own

I keep feeling

I keep feeling anxious, baby
Days and the nights when I just keep feeling nervous
Help me
Why do I feel like I'm fighting on my own?
Fighting on my own

I keep feeling anxious, baby
Days and the nights when I just keep feeling nervous
Help me
Why do I feel like I'm fighting on my own?
Fighting on my own
