

Irrelevant

Dennis Lloyd

All of my dreams
All of my fears in life
I want to give up as soon as I close my eyes

What you gonna do right now
You realize that you can't go much further
Can't look back
It's what you gonna do when you realize that it's over
Mmm, it's over
Mmm, it's over

All of my time
All of my wasted time
I want it all back
So I can just change my mind

What you gonna do right now
You realize that you can't go much further
Can't look back
It's what you gonna do when you realize that it's over
Mmm, it's over
Mmm, it's over

And I know it might be late to say the words that I would not say again
And I know that the times have changed, I realize now
All the nights that I won't forget
And all the days that I would not live again
And I know that it might be late, I realize now

What you gonna do right now
You realize that you can't go much further
Can't look back
It's what you gonna do when you realize that it's over
What you gonna do right now
You realize that you can't go much further
Can't look back
It's what you gonna do when you realize that it's over

Mmm, it's over
Mmm, it's over
