

Leave It All Behind

Dennis Lloyd

I know what you're gonna say
I just gotta take it for another day
But I don't need this kind of pressure
Who are you to ever measure?

What if I'm not okay?
Maybe I just gotta find another way
'Cause I don't need this kind of pressure
Now who the fuck are you to measure it?

Just leave it all behind
Leave it all behind

Moments never fade away
Life is just a bunch of games you gotta play
But I don't need this kind of tension
Maybe just a new direction

What if I'm not okay?
Maybe I just gotta find another way
'Cause I don't need this kind of pressure
Now who the fuck are you to measure it?

Just leave it all behind
Leave it all behind

Now this life is so full of complications
Sometimes I feel like I'm struggling
This kind of love, it can be so overwhelming
The kind of love that is killing me
And I don't know if I'm ever gonna make it
Upon the place where I wanna be
Because this life is so full of obligations
The kind of life that is killing me

Leave it all behind
Leave it all behind
Leave it all behind
Leave it all behind
Leave it all behind
Leave it all behind

Just leave it all behind
Leave it all behind
