

Enemies

Deno

I got enemies everywhere that I ain't heard of
They holding tools, they want me gone, this ain't no workshop
Enemies, everywhere, I ain't heard of
I can't trust these guys, man they lie, this shit Bird Box for real
I got enemies everywhere that I ain't heard of
They holding tools, they want me gone, this ain't no workshop
Enemies, everywhere, I ain't heard of
I can't trust these guys, man they lie, this shit Bird Box for real

Then envy me, my enemies
Oh god, why all of the jealousy
It's when I made all the money especially
Now I'm rolling on my own
Don't need to flex for the 'gram cos they know I'm a winner
Hell yeah, more bands so it keeps getting bigger
Too cold, it's mad, how we making them shiver
My bad, I'm new, but you're the beginner
No loud but we still be zoning
I'm busy but I still be rolling
And too cold so I'm ice cream coning
Look now cos everyone's phoning

I like your girl
She know me well
She feeling Gucci
She drip Chanel

She drip Chanel
She feeling Gucci
Now she a groupie

I got enemies everywhere that I ain't heard of
They holding tools, they want me gone, this ain't no workshop

I can't trust these guys, they so fake to me
No loyalty, no, they lie faithfully, yeah
Not a lot of people that I like
It's hard to trust somebody with my life, yeah
I don't roll with no people like that
Nowadays I don't even write back
Only roll if I know they got my back
If you know, then you know 'cause
I don't like you, if I don't know you
Stay to myself so I'm anti-social Life gets mad, how they act like they like you
But really hate you shining

I like your girl
She know me well
She feeling Gucci
She drip Chanel
