

Muddy Waters

Deno

She the realest, she my drug
Yeah, she my coke
Yeah, I need her to get me out muddy waters
When they come for me, I know she'll never fold
Shout out whoever made you their daughter
'Cause I might never ever let you go
Be there when I look over my shoulder
And every single night I'll get you home
I'm your army, I'm your tank
Yeah, I'm your soldier

Let's get it
Get in the boat, I'm ready
Have a good time, no 2020
Make you spill confetti-fetti
Yeah, get steady
Open your mouth, you've done it plenty
Open your mouth and sip some Henny
Open your mouth and drink that Remy, yeah
When I get a break from work, let's take a flight
Baby girl, I'll take you to the light
And when we're at the top, oh we'll be fine
You already know that you're my white

She the realest, she my drug
Yeah, she my coke
Yeah, I need her to get me out muddy waters
When they come for me, I know she'll never fold
Shout out whoever made you their daughter
'Cause I might never ever let you go
Be there when I look over my shoulder
And every single night I'll get you home
I'm your army, I'm your tank
Yeah, I'm your soldier

By my side like Eve and Adam
Fuck them opps and fuck them Karens
Get my girl the brand new baggage
Christian Dior Dior for Harrods
When the pussy that good, you know I could never leave
You're fucking up your PLT and my Amiri jeans
Put you in some double C's then put you in a double tree
Oh, it's been hours and hours so we ain't getting sleep
She wanna eat out, well baby, you're luck I know the spots
She asked me if I was hungry and then she bust out the box
Mmm

She the realest, she my drug
Yeah, she my coke
Yeah, I need her to get me out muddy waters
When they come for me, I know she'll never fold
Shout out whoever made you their daughter
'Cause I might never ever let you go
Be there when I look over my shoulder
And every single night I'll get you home
I'm your army, I'm your tank
Yeah, I'm your soldier
