

Do Things

Dent May

There was a time, when i never thought that i feel good again
I had no reason to go out of bed in the morning
Then the sun came and washed away the clouds that drowned me with rain
There was a time where i never thought that i would have fun again
I had no reason to go out of bed in the morning
Then the sun came and washed away the clouds that drowned me with rain
Ba ba ba ba ba do things your own way own way x2
Cause the sun came and washed away the clouds that drowned me with rain with rain with rain
Ba ba ba ba ba do things your own way own way own way. x 2
Do things your own way, own way own way. x 3
Do things your own way
