

Endlessly

Dent May

Since I was just a kid
Each night I dreamt of this
As lonesome as a boy could be
I prayed the lord you'd come to me

Now I've become a man
Which I don't understand
One thing that I know is true
I like to spend my time with you

No, I don't want to live heartache to heartache
I'm telling you I will follow you always

Endlessly, next to me
Endlessly, until the day I'm dying
Until the day I'm dying
Until the day I'm dying
Endlessly, next to me
Run with me
Endlessly

And one thing is for sure
I traveled shore to shore
I've seen some girls that I adore
But still I crawl back to your door

Though often I'm depressed
Dear God, my minds a mess
But happiness I must confess
Is feeling that you know me best

No, I don't want to live heartache to heartache
I'm telling you I will follow you always

Endlessly, next to me
Endlessly, until the day I'm dying
Until the day I'm dying
Until the day I'm dying
Endlessly, next to me
Run with me
Endlessly

Well if I die tomorrow, the worlds not gonna change
So what's the use in sorrow, what's the use in pain?
Everybody's gonna die anyway
So let's try to get some love everyday

Endlessly, next to me
Endlessly, until the day I'm dying
Until the day I'm dying
Until the day I'm dying
Endlessly, next to me
Run with me
Endlessly

So why do tears keep falling?
Guess that's never gonna change
