

Summer Is Over

Dent May

I went out walking
And felt a cool wind upon my shoulder.
I feel the air is getting colder
Memories of palm trees constantly haunt me
Cause where I'm going It's lonely and it's snowing

But this year I ain't gonna shed a tear
Summer is over, I can't believe it's gone
The air is colder now but my bed is warm

I pass my old street, covered in dead leaves
I'm growing older, my sunny days are over
I walk through town square, about that cool air
Well where I'm going, a colder wind is blowing

But this year I ain't gonna shed a tear
Summer is over, I can't believe its gone
The air is colder now but my bed is warm

Summer has ended, I can't believe it's through
Maybe this winter I will keep warm with you
