

That Feeling

Dent May

For years and years thought I was born to die alone
Then I found someone who dried my tears and turned me on
She turned me on to that feeling
Don't run away from that feeling

No, no no no, no no no, no no no
No, no no no
Because that feeling's good

I had a job and I was bored, days were long
So I bought a guitar and put that feeling in a song
I made a song with that feeling
Don't run away from that feeling

No, no no no, no no no, no no no
No, no no no
Because that feeling's good

It took a long time, long time girl
But I found someone
And I found someone
To call my own

Go find someone with that feeling
Don't run away from that feeling
From that feeling

No, no no no, no no no, no no no
No, no no no
Because that feeling
Cause that feeling
Cause that feeling's good
