

She sits on the road at the party
Wearing her favorite gown
If I had the nerve to say what's on my mind
Tell me baby if the world is bitter now
Please if you need anything
Let it be me
Let it be me

I'm walking alone at the party
Notice the tear in her eye
Only to pass with a smile
If I had the nerve to say what's in my head
I fear that I may be alone until I'm dead
Please if you need anything
Let it be me
Let it be me

It must've been a green
You spoke to me
Please if you need anything
Let it be me
Let it be me
Let it be me
Let it be me
