

Lady Draco

Denzel Curry

You got me saying, "Fuck love, fuck love"
You got me saying, "Fuck love", saying, "Fuck love"

I'm the baby, love it when she call my name
Drink it straight, "bad bitch" on her application
I implore you, always dripping in the fly shit
Check her price tag, Draco stuffed in her Chanel

Bag up for auction, fucking didn't hit you for your paycheck
(And extorted you) hit with a text saying you a new dad
Proceed with caution, 34 inches on her lace wig
Every other day want something new
Need to drop this bitch, I can't deal with her attitude

I'm the baby, love it when she call my name
Drink it straight, "bad bitch" on her application
I implore you, always dripping in the fly shit
Check her price tag, Draco stuffed in her Chanel

Bag, bag, she too bad, huh
So many hearts she got stuffed in the bag
(It's true) bae mama told her, "Never trust a man past what he do"
Bae get 'em bad and then bae cut 'em loose
Bae don't double back and it ain't nothing to her
All the damage she can do

I'm the baby, love it when she call my name
Drink it straight, "bad bitch" on her application
I implore you, always dripping in the fly shit
Check her price tag, Draco stuffed in her Chanel

Do you know what love is?
Do you know that love got a thin line?
When the hate comes in, do you switch sides?
When you separate yourself, do you need time
To think it over? Who genuine or who usin' you
What you first instinct?
Number two, what would you do?
If I was you, I don't know

I guess, at the end of the day
I'ma say what I say at the price of being friendless
It's hard to show love at times
When I see that the same bullshit is endless
No love when that person is envious
And for the insecure remaining impotent
I always been in the midst of it
And, from the gist of it, I do not give a shit

(I, I) I fight with the bros sometimes
I fight with the hoes sometimes
I fight with my girl sometimes
I fight with the world sometimes
At the top, but some can't climb
On the move, still on my grind
'Cause love can make you blind
But you gotta show love sometimes

I'm the baby, love it when she call my name
Drink it straight, "bad bitch" on her application
I implore you, always dripping in the fly shit
