The Game

Denzel Curry

Before you judge do your research
Nigga we hurt
Before I even think about us
I think me first
The street had only brought me ether
And random outburst
I told the hood that ima come back
Just get me out first
And niggas quick to call me sell out
When I'm on the outskirts
Want to know how I got there
I put in hard work
I know you want to get this money
You gotta be smart first
Pay attention write this shit down
And repeat my verse
I don't fuck with people that ain't
On the same time
Too lazy to wanna make dimes
But wanna take mine
When it comes to fucking with dimes
You need to peep signs
Pussy over money online
Then nigga you blind
Find yourself paying for shit
Because she too fine
If you wasn't making a cent
You getting denied
If you see she independent
And have a good vibe
That's the one you need to stick with
And keep on your side

The game, the game, the game, the game
The game, the game, the game, the game
These niggas out here screaming that they gang gang gang
Be the same niggas fucking up the game game game

The game, the game, the game, the game
The game, the game, the game, the game
These niggas out here screaming that they gang gang gang
Be the same niggas fucking up the game game game

Seen a lot of brothers fucked up
Seen some friends die
Cause you walked away from a fight
Don't mean that you pie
I don't got a problem with all
These other new guys
Even find myself bumping
Bout just a few guys
Doing all this industry shit
I start to realize
We looking up the junkies and shit
And mimic they lives
Niggas go and get the same same tats
Wear the same chains

Gucci, Prada, Fendi you all
Wear the same thang
Niggas fucking on the same bitch
That you call main
Now I gotta roast you slow mane
Like it was lo mein
If you said I came for your head
I guess I'm Rogaine
All of y'all like layover flights
Y'all niggas too plain
You don't need to brag or dress up
When all your shit flame
Sabotaging other black men
Bruh all that shit lame
I got love for Megan but also got
Love for NoName
And I won't stop speaking to y'all
Until I change...

The game, the game, the game, the game
The game, the game, the game, the game
These niggas out here screaming that they gang gang gang
Be the same niggas fucking up the game game game

By the way
This ain't a motherfucking diss
This the motherfucking truth
Bitch
