

Obvious

Deorro

Right from the start I was lost in the dark
Till I found you
Breaking my heart just like buildings
Are crashing in around you

You came picking up the pieces
Exactly when I needed it
You touched me back together
But somehow you're not seeing it

Steal my breath
I'm dying to love
Ain't it obvious?
That I want you
Without all regrets
This time I'm making it obvious
That I want you

To feel my love
Nothing but my love
That part of my love
I'll give you something you won't forget
This time I'm making it obvious

Holding my hand but you don't understand
What you're doing
When you let go you don't know
That you left me in ruins, mmh

But you came picking up the pieces
Exactly when I needed it
You touched me back together
But somehow you're not seeing it

Steal my breath
I'm dying to love
Ain't it obvious?
That I want you
Without all regrets
This time I'm making it obvious
That I want you

To feel my love
Nothing but my love
That part of my love
I'll give you something you won't forget
This time I'm making it obvious

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa

Picking up the pieces
You touched me back together

Steal my breath
I'm dying to love
Ain't it obvious?

That I want you
Without all regrets
This time I'm making it obvious
That I want you

To feel my love
Nothing but my love
That part of my love
I'll give you something you won't forget
This time I'm making it obvious

Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa

Picking up the pieces
