

Turn Back Time

Deorro

Where did it go?
Nobody knows
I forgot we had somethin'
Why do we throw out what is old?
Hey, that could be worth somethin'
Lay your head in my hands
Oh c'mon, stay right here if you can

And why don't we turn back time for tonight?
Oh c'mon and lay down here in the fire

Before we would know
Diamonds or gold
Hey, was it all for nothin'?
Tears they may fall
On the pillow
Well that's gotta be worth somethin'
Lay your head in my hands
Oh c'mon, stay the night if you can

And why don't we turn back time for tonight?
Oh c'mon and lay down here in the fire
For one more time

And why don't we (turn)
And why don't we (turn)

What about one last night for goodbyes?
