

Hands Like a River

Deportees

You got me feeling emotions
You got me feeling ok
I'm not saying I love you, aah
I'm just saying I may

Aaah

You run your hands like a river
There's a way to be free
Oh, I hope that you're thinking, aah
The same thing as me

Don't you close the door 'cause I'm coming too, aah
Only a few failures behind you
Don't you close the door 'cause I'm coming too, aah
Only a few failures behind you

When you pull back the curtains
And you see all the dust
All that you held sacred
Covered in rust

Don't you close the door 'cause I'm coming too, aah
Only a few failures behind you
Don't you close the door 'cause I'm coming too, aah
Only a few failures behind you

I'm not every kind of broken, I'm not lost in every way
I don't like complaining, let's just say that I'm ok
How long have I been sleeping? How long have I been gone?
To wake up to you smiling in a place where I belong

Don't you close the door 'cause I'm coming too, mmh
I am only a few failures behind you
Will you wait for me like I wait for you? mmh
I am only a few failures behind you
