

Nothing Wants You Back

Deportees

Don't get caught in-between
There is nothing but either or
Don't give up, don't agree
To make sense is to make war
Everything is what it seems
If you don't run you'll never move
The air will choke the insincere
Don't waste your breath just asking why

If you want nothing, then nothing wants you back
If you want nothing, then nothing wants you back
Never say that we lost, we just haven't won yet

Life is life, death is death
I'm too young to compromise
There will be no retreat
That's a land we'll never see
Arm your love, if nothing else
They'll break your heart anyhow
The air will choke the insincere
Everybody will know why

If you want nothing, then nothing wants you back
If you want nothing, then nothing wants you back
Never say that we lost, we just haven't won yet
