

Ready For It

Deportees

And now I'm ready for it, ready for it
Yes sir, I'm ready for it
Ready to fall
And I've been heading for it, heading for it
I think I'm ready for it
Ready to fall in line

I know now what you knew back then
Yes sir, this castle it's a castle of sand
Oh, I know now what you knew back then
Yes sir, this castle it's a castle of sand, oh right

You won't get yours baby
And it's seems I won't get mine
Let's be like soldiers
Not a single tear, not a single tear in eye

And I've been waiting for it, waiting for it
Yes sir, I've been waiting for it
Waiting to fall
Yes I've been saving for it, saving for it
Yes I've been saving for it
Saving to stay alive

And I know now what you knew back then
Yes sir, this castle it's a castle of sand
And I know now what you knew back then
Yes sir, this castle it's a castle of sand, oh right

It's not what you expected
But don't let them see you cry
Your blood is now infected
Don't let them see you cry
Not a single tear in eye

You won't get yours baby
And it seems I won't get mine
Don't make it easy
On the ones that stole our pride
Let's be like soldiers
Not a single tear, not a single tear
Not a single tear in eye
