Longing

Derailers

Longing, you found me again Deep in my heart That's how it begins

Longing, you always win I'll never ask why, when I start to cry Longing again

I hear your voice and I see your face Dreaming at night, I feel your embrace

Longing, dreaming and then Once more I awake, my heart starts to break Longing again

Longing, remembering when Those sweet thoughts of you, were all that I knew Longing again

I hear your voice and I see your face Dreaming at night, I feel your embrace

Longing, dreaming and then Once more I awake, my heart starts to break Longing again

Once more I awake, my heart starts to break Longing again
