

Tears In Your Eyes

Derailers

Tears in your eyes, tears in your eyes
I found out the truth about you, now there you lie
Tears in your eyes, I made you cry
I'm sorry I'm not sorry for those
Tears in your eyes

I told you not to ever do me wrong
Apparently it didn't take you long
Like sand through my fingers, I try to hold my anger
But honey I guess I just ain't that strong

Tears in your eyes, tears in your eyes
I found out the truth about you, now there you lie
Tears in your eyes, I made you cry
I'm sorry I'm not sorry for those
Tears in your eyes

How dare you cry and try to play the victim
Your reputations run all over town
Baby can't you see, this time you won't fool me
'Cause honey this time I won't be your clown

Tears in your eyes, tears in your eyes
I found out the truth about you, now there you lie
Tears in your eyes, I made you cry
I'm sorry I'm not sorry for those
Tears in your eyes

Tears in your eyes, tears in your eyes
I found out the truth about you, now there you lie
Tears in your eyes, I made you cry
I'm sorry I'm not sorry for those
Tears in your eyes
