

ASTAR WILL COME BACK

Derdian

Dorian:

Look around everything is lost
Hope lays dead in the dust
We have been prisoners here for too many years, my Lord
Refugees locked up
Locked in this narrow cave
Who knows how's the sunlight?
But this will end soon
We'll take back our paradise
Even if it's the last thing that we do!
In the dark we wait for a brighter tomorrow
The glorious rebirth!

Astar will come back again in our life
That dream often recurs in my mind
A new era again!
For the brave who stand and hold their ground
A magic in the tragedy
We will rise/fight 'cause Astar cannot die

I cannot tell...tell what happens in those moments
I feel like a connection with the Universe
And that's where I understood
How to break through his black magic
And I finally found a way to help us all

Like the phoenix we'll survive
A ray of light tears the sky
Anyway...
At worst we force the limits of the fear
King, let me explain what I've thought...
