

FACE TO FACE

Derdian

Face to face with the evil God Dorian's now
Spying on his dark plans

Dorian:

Looking into his eyes I see death everywhere
My people succumb to the Demon's rage
Technological evolution that we got there
Was not enough to avoid this page!

He looks in my eyes but I don't understand
He shouldn't have seen me cause I'm just a ghost
The destruction is about to take my holy land
I believe that our hope is lost!

Mohzer:

Do you think dear
To come up here
With your astral body and not to be seen
Using the illusion won't help you at all!
There's no escape
Like afraid apes
You'll be sent back to your holes
And your fear will please me for millennia to come

Dorian:

And after saying that he took me by my neck
He threw me to the ground away from him, my back
Felt broken even though my body wasn't there
But I have found the strength to fly to him again

Mohzer:

Look at my demons they're crossing the gate
You can no longer do anything
Look at my demons they're crossing the gate
You can no longer do anything

Dorian:

No you're wrong, Mohzer we will send them back
To the underworld where they came from
No you're wrong, Mohzer we will send them back
A new generation of wizards you'll face
So let's prepare for war!
