

In Everything

Derdian

Every night I feel your spirit wondering
And through the dark I hear your voice is calling me
I felt pure joy when you were close to me,
But now you're leaving a blade inside my soul

No defense when you meet your destiny
You have to try to make it great until you live!
All the persons here are different to me,
But anyone, I'm sure, will never touch the sun

Then I will try to find the light for my eyes to shine,
A light to keep your smile expose in my mind

Now you are closed behind the door, in a place with no return,
I can't cry for you anymore

You are in everything, you are inside of me
and make me feel so lucky in everyday I live I'm learning to be strong,
I know the path is long,
But I've found in you a reason to be here
You are in every dream,
you are in every scream,
because I've got a broken heart that I cant heal
The sorrow's left behind and I am here to find another day to rise again and live this life

L'eco del tuo addio
si fa voce in me:
lieve come un ticchettio
batte qui sull'anima Anche se debole suona limpida, così tangibile, ma tu non ci sei... al di là dei limiti del Tempo vai Dove niente fu e nulla sarà mai, e lo stesso Universo no ha alcun senso...

You are in everything,
you are inside of me
and make me feel so lucky in everyday I live
I'm learning to be strong,
I know the path is long,
But I've found in you a reason to be here
You are in every dream,
you are in every scream,
and I am here to find
another day to rise again and live this life
