

I'm a valiant captain, Golstar is my name
And I am the builder of this reign!
Troghlor is my master, obedience I show
All my life was branded by this law

But now a new era is rising from dust of the war
The rebellion takes my soul!
This is the time to change and think about all our goals
It's the time for peace, my lord.

Hey! Stop now this war
'Cause a new era is rising now,
We have to reverse
Your plans of power on your people
Hey, bloody Milord
We need a turning point, You know.
Blood closes our eyes.
And lock our bodies in a gelid vault!

So this is the reason for my new relationship:
to defeat my Master I'm too weak!
Exenthar will help me to conspire against his reign
I'll blow out his power like a flame

I find it hard to believe your kingdom will survive
An empire based on a lie!
And in few years of power you'll kill all your men
To peace my mind I bend!

Hey! Stop now this war
'Cause a new era is rising now,
We have to reverse
Your plans of power on your people
Hey, bloody Milord
We need a turning point, You know.
Blood closes our eyes.
And lock our bodies in a gelid vault!
