

THE EVIL MESSIAH

Derdian

Dorian:

I close my eyes, alone in my old hut
In meditation on my restlessness
Elevating my soul
Strange dreams, weird forebodings
Maybe I have to change perspective
Need to exit from this haunting nightmare

Mohzer:

"Yes you will go! Against the traitors...
Come out from the cloud!
I need you!"

Dorian:

"Who's gonna save us from war?"

I'm flying away to distant dimensions
I will soon find all the answers
The solution to my doubts
The Universe carries me so far
Showing things I didn't wanna see
Something wrong for this land is still alive!

Ghosts of a forgotten past return
He's still there with the one who can't be named
A name forbidden many years ago
Lord Troghlor has not been won!

Black wings are swarming
Demons storm
Space has been torn
Worlds interlaced
Devil's mind is clear
And now I feel ...I feel like I'm dying
I know there's no time left
In a column of fire
Comes the beast
Vassal of god
Evil messiah
Gathering the hordes
Crossing the gate
I must stop him at any cost

Mohzer yells at them

Full power's in his hands
"It's time to take back all these land
It's time to make them crawl like worms in the dust

Troghlor time has come
Destroy, fold and rebuild my reign!

Lord Troghlor time has come!"

Dorian:

Days of death are coming once again
And it seems so awfully unreal
Don't fail heart of mine

Cause I need to know the plans of evil
To resist
To defend
To defeat
