Derek Minor

Oohhhh I'm feeling kosher (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Yeah you know I did it for the culture (For the culture)
20/20 vision oh I'm focused (I'm focused)
Wipe me down, I'm dodging all the bogus (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)

Ooh that's clean (Woo, yeah, woo, yeah)

Turn my music up I need your attention please
Called doc Watson told 'em open the budget
Uh uh uh the state from I love it
Independent money I want all of my duckets
Minor on a roll coming straight out the oven
I came out the bottom so I had to use my noggin
Help your ego lose some weight cos your memory I'll jog it
I been whippin up these blessings tore my shoulder out of socket
It's all God I don't know what he doing but it's poppin

Bagging verses up like dope, ooh that's crack
If you hating you a duck you just quack
I am a man with a wife and two kids so that wasting my time I ain't into tha t
I don't got patience to go back and forth with an ignorant soul on the inter net
I hit the road boy you know I be moving
When I get home I break bread like communion
Y'all out here cappin to get some influence
Like God ain't the one who control He the truest
Hey I don't beef with no rappers I'm really bout starting a movement
But in combat with mortals, I'm kenchi, I don't see me losing Y'all out here chasing the silver and looking like Judas
Man they broke up the game and I'm tryna to glue it

Oohhhh I'm feeling kosher (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
