Well I'm sorry to say it but I wish I can trade this all and st art again
I'm hoping that your making me more
I'm a liar, I'm a cheater, um o yea deceiver
And at times I'm Q-Tip, I got thoughts of Bonita!
Wait get a grip there you go In your mind wander in front of th ese folks again
Some don't want the truth Cause when I tell em taste and see
They just wanna skip the meal and eat these fortune cookie twee ts
But the LORD see's the game from the pressbox
And he seek where we hide in our best spot
And the evil that he finds when he looks at me
Make me wanna look and sound like an X-box
I know some say Halloween they never celebrate But wear a different costume almost every single day
That's why JESUS CHRIST died the most scariest of fates
So the monsters and the goblins can throw their mask away YEA!
