

Break Your Heart

Derek Ryan

Here beneath the dancing lights there was never a one like you
The fire in your pretty eyes spark each time you move Yeah I know you've been let down I see past your disguise
But I won't mess you around like those other guys

No I'm never gonna break your heart, break your heart break you r heart

No I'm never gonna break your heart, break your heart in two

'Cause I wouldn't know where to start, know where to start
No I'm never gonna break your heart, break your heart in two

Sometimes hearts just don't fit together like they should
And love justhelp but split apart like firewood
That was then, this is now our love is something new We're stronger than the oak-tree bow there's nothing we can't do

No I'm never gonna break your heart, break your heart break you
r heart

No I'm never gonna break your heart, break your heart in two

'Cause I wouldn't know where to start, know where to start No I'm never gonna break your heart, gonna break your heart in two

I'm never gonna break your heart in two
