

Cry

Derek Ryan

Darling, just close your eyes, let's run and hide from the crowd

Darling, it's just me and you and we made it through
The wants of our doubts and if you see tears in my eyes
It's 'cause I'm so happy now, I could cry

Darling, just take a bow, for your loss some how, makes me hope
Darling, sometimes I don't let you know, oh how I love you so
With my heart and all of my Soul, and if you see tears in my eyes
It's 'cause I'm so happy now, I could cry

Hey!

Baby I could cry, and if you see tears in my eyes
It's 'cause I'm so lucky now, I could cry
