

Fine Line

Derek Ryan

You said I stole your heart, when I gave you love
There's no way that I can win
You said I let you down, when you let me in
When you're lying silent in my bed, whoa
How am I to know what's in your heart your soul your head?

And, baby, it's a fine line
Between doing what's wrong and right
If I'm not found guilty
Then I didn't do the crime
Oh, baby it's a fine line
Right between day and night
It's a case of being free
Or doing time, baby it's a fine fine line

Before I thought, everything was black and white
Pieces fell right into place
But I would always be wrong
If you only had your way
I look in your eyes it makes no sense, no no
Can we just talk over here on my side of the fence?

And, baby, it's a fine line
Between doing what's wrong and right
If I'm not found guilty
Then I didn't do the crime
Oh, baby it's a fine line
Right between day and night
It's a case of being free
Or doing time, baby it's a fine fine line

It's a fine line
Between doing what's wrong and right
If I'm not found guilty
Then I didn't do the crime
Baby it's a fine line
Right between day and night
It's a case of being free
Or doing time

Hey!
Oh, baby, it's a fine line
Between doing what's wrong and right
If I'm not found guilty
Then I didn't do the crime
Oh, baby, it's a fine line
Right between day and night
It's a case of being free
Or doing time

Or doing time

Baby, it's a fine line

It's a fine line

Yeah, yeah

Oh

Baby, it's a fine line

Between doing what's wrong and right
