

Good Night Out

Derek Ryan

Put good a week in, have a good night out
Goodbye, bad day blues
Put good a week in, have a good night out
Hello, dancing shoes

Monday, never thought I'd get to lunchtime
Tuesday didn't start
Wednesday, Thursday turned into one day
Friday broke my heart

Bills kept coming, car stopped running
[?] broke down, too
The teapot smashed on the kitchen floor
And the dish ran away with the spoon

Put good a week in, have a good night out
Goodbye, bad day blues
Put good a week in, have a good night out
Hello, dancing shoes

I said I'd be home by seven, heading to the bar
A.M., P.M., that's how I am now, sleeping in my car

Put good a week in, have a good night out
Goodbye, bad day blues
Put good a week in, have a good night out
Hello, dancing shoes
Put good a week in, have a good night out
Goodbye, bad day blues
Put good a week in, have a good night out
Hello, dancing shoes

Put good a week in, have a good night out
Goodbye, bad day blues
Put good a week in, have a good night out
Hello, dancing shoes
Put good a week in, have a good night out
Goodbye, bad day blues
Put good a week in, have a good night out
Hello, dancing shoes

Put good a week in, have a good night out
Goodbye, bad day blues
