Derek Ryan

I see you're wastin' time with that other guy
But you're on my mind all the day oh
He just doesn't see the beauty that I see
Oh he'd never leave no never stray oh

Who cares what people say they don't know anyway
Follow your own heart play your own cards
Life is yours to live you've got so much to give
I said hello, hello

Hello my Hayley Jo
Come on and let me know
I can't take it anymore
Is it yes or is it no?
My Hayley Jo

I'd give you everything that I have to bring Dirt and diamond rings. What do you say, oh?
Just cut all your ties come with me tonight
I know you feel it's right let's run away, oh

Who cares what people say they don't know anyway
Follow your own heart play your own cards
Life is yours to live you've got so much to give
I said hello, hello

Hello my Hayley Jo
Come on and let me know
I can't take it anymore
Is it yes or is it no?
