

Heaven Tonight

Derek Ryan

If you're feelin' kinda lonely
And this world is only
Turnin' those blue skies into grey
Well I know a little corner
Where the sun's a little warmer
We got pretty girls, beer and a song all day

Throw away your sorrow
Let the devil take tomorrow
Got a lovely little angel by my side
Don't matter where we're goin'
We're livin' by the moment
If the world goes to hell well that's all right
I'm already in heaven tonight

It's a different kinda place here
Nobody is a stranger
Yeah we're all stars when we walk in
Could be a farmer or a poet
Nobody's gonna know it
It don't matter where you come from or where you been

Throw away your sorrow
Let the devil take tomorrow
Got a lovely little angel by my side
Don't matter where we're goin'
We're livin' by the moment
If the world goes to hell well that's all right
I'm already in heaven tonight

Throw away your sorrow
Let the devil take tomorrow
I got a lovely little angel by my side
Don't matter where we're goin'
We're livin' for the moment
If the world goes to hell that's all right
I'm already in heaven tonight

I'm already in heaven tonight

If the world goes to hell that's all right
'Cos I'm already in heaven tonight
