

Mad For The Road

Derek Ryan

I'm giving up settling down
Had enough of this old town
I've had the crack
But I won't look back
Cause I drank the final round

I can't bear to say goodbye
To the sweetness in your eye
I'm a rolling stone
But I don't wanna roll alone
Y'all know

I'm mad for the road
Mad for the road
Whatever lies ahead
We'll share the load
I might think I'm crazy
And that maybe truth be told
But I'm mad for the route
Mad about you
And mad for the road

We'll write new songs on old guitars
Sing our hearts out in the bars
Letting go of all we know
As we lie beneath the stars

I'm mad for the road
Mad for the road
Whatever lies ahead
We'll share the load
I might think I'm crazy
And that maybe truth be told
But I'm mad for the route
Mad about you
And mad for the road

I'm mad for the road
Mad for the road
Whatever lies ahead
We'll share the load
I might think I'm crazy
And that maybe truth be told
But I'm mad for the route
Mad about you
And mad for the road

I'm mad for the road
Mad for the road
Whatever lies ahead
We'll share the load
I might think I'm crazy
And that maybe truth be told
But I'm mad for the route
Mad about you
And mad for the road

Cause I'm mad for the route
Mad about you

I'm giving up settling down
Had enough of this old town
