

Perfect Days

Derek Ryan

The Sun's in the Sky and you by my side
These are perfect days
The wind blows your hair
No worries or a care
Yes these are perfect days

Nothing might happen right out of the Blue
No words can tell you how much I love you
But the Sun's in the Sky and you by my side
These are perfect days

We lie by the Fire crack open the Wine
These are perfect days
I'm awake at the dawn with you in my arms
Yes, these are perfect days

Nothing might happen right out of the Blue
No words can tell you how much I love you
But the Sun's in the Sky and you by my side
These are perfect days

Perfect days, with you smiling face
Perfect days in our own special place
As we walk hand in hand we both understand
These are perfect days
