

Soft Ground

Derek Ryan

When worries in your mind
Keep you up all night
I will hide the sunrise
So you can rest your tired eyes

And if you want to drive
The fastest lane in life
I will be your backroad
Leading you the way home

So laugh until you cry
Run until you fly
Remember only God knows
What's coming down the line

Love until it hurts
Try until it works
And if you ever fall down
I will be your soft ground

And if we are apart
Just listen to your heart
You can never go wrong
Dancing to your own song

So laugh until you cry
Run until you fly
Remember only God knows
What's coming down the line

Love until it hurts
Try and try and try until it works
And if you ever fall down
I will be your soft ground

Lay your head down
I am here now
With you

Laugh until you cry
Run until you fly
Remember only God knows
What's coming down the line

Love until it hurts
Try and try and try until it works
And if you ever fall down
I will be your soft ground

If you ever fall down
I will be your soft ground
