

You're Only Young Once

Derek Ryan

Hey mama what you gotta do
To find true love like papa knew?
He still takes you out on a Saturday night
Dancin' to the beat till the mornin' light
She says hey son believe it
To find true love you gotta give it
You've only one life you gotta live it
Go son have your fun 'cos you're only young
You're only young once yeah

Ooh yeah yeah yeah
Alright

I said hey papa what you gotta do
To find true love like mama and you?
Anyone can see after all this time
He'd be guilty if lovin' her was a crime
He says hey son believe it
To find true love you gotta give it
You've only one life you gotta live it
Go son have your fun 'cos you're only young
You're only young once

Alright
Hey
Mama papa let's take it up now
Hey
Ooh

Everybody sing oh oh only young once
Oh oh only young once
Oh oh only young once
Oh oh let's break it down
Oh oh only young once
Oh oh only young once
Oh oh only young once
Oh oh hey yeah

I said hey son believe it
To find true love you gotta give it
You've only one life you gotta live it
Go son have your fun 'cos you're only young
I said hey son believe it
To find true love you gotta give it
You've only one life you gotta live it
Go son have your fun 'cos you're only young
You're only young once yeah

Alright
You're only young
Oh father life

Said oh oh only young once
Oh oh only young once
Oh oh only young once
You're only young, you're only young
You're only young, you're only young once
