

Better Than Wine

Derek Webb

You ravished me with one look of your eyes
You, you are fair, you're so fair, oh my love
Better than wine is your love
If you can't find me it's alright, oh my love
Stay with your friends, I will come speak to you
'Cause you are mine, oh my love
And better than wine is your love

Better than wine is your love, is your love
Better than wine is your love, is your love

You are beautiful, eyes like doves, oh my love
You have lips like jewels, hair of gold, oh my love
Wild as a vine is your love
But better than wine is your love

I tell you, my beloved
You cannot be replaced
With my left hand beneath your head
And my right arm around your waist
So I take a deep breath
Because I feel a little drunk
But I'm in my right mind babe
And I know your love is much
