

The End

Derek Webb

here's another story about the invisible knives the elephant in the room trumpeting these lies the slow hate, the hesitating voices in the dark here's another story about the invisible wives we've really got to stop talking and meeting like this there's a better way coming and we both know what it is but it's a hard sell, the ringing bell and you're licking your lips

we've really got to stop talking and thinking like kids

this is the end
this is the end
it's just the end
