Wedding Dress

Derek Webb

If you could love me as a wife. For my wedding gift your life. Should that be all I ever need? Is there more I'm looking for? Should I read between the lines? Look for blessings in the skies? Make me handsome rich and white. Is that really what you want?

'Cause I am a whore I do confess.

I put you on just like a wedding dress,
And I run down the aisle,
Run down the aisle.

I am a prodigal with no way home.
I put you on just like a ring of gold,
And I run down the aisle,
Run down the aisle, to you.

Could you love this bastard child?
No, I don't trust you to provide.
With one hand in a pot of gold
And the other in your side.
'Cause I am so easily satisfied.
With the call of a lover's soul as wild.
I would take a little cash
Over your very flesh and blood.

'Cause I am a whore I do confess.

I put you on just like a wedding dress,
And I run down the aisle,
Run down the aisle.

I am a prodigal with no way home.
I put you on just like a ring of gold
And I run down the aisle,
Run down the aisle, to you.

'Cause money cannot buy A husbnd's jealous eye., When you have knowingly Deceived his wife.

'Cause I am a whore I do confess.

I put you on just like a wedding dress,
And I run down the aisle,
Run down the aisle.

I am a prodigal with no way home.
I put you on just like a ring of gold,
And I run down the aisle,
Run down the aisle, to you.

'Cause I am a whore I do confess.

I put you on just like a wedding dress,
And I run down the aisle,
Run down the aisle.

I am a prodigal with no way home.
I put you on just like a ring of gold,
And I run down the aisle,

Run down the aisle, to you.
